F@CUS READERS

Inventing Computers

1. Write a few sentences describing w	vhat AI is and how it works.
---------------------------------------	------------------------------

2. What is one way your life would be different if computers didn't exist?

- 3. When were integrated circuits invented?
  - A. in the late 1800s
  - B. in the 1940s
  - C. in the 1960s
- 4. Which is an example of input?
  - A. A computer's speaker plays music.
  - B. A computer shows words on its screen.
  - C. A person types words using a computer's keyboard.

FQCUS READERS

5. What does memory mean in this book?

Computers used magnetic drums for memory. These parts could record and store information.

- A. a way of deleting information forever
- B. a way of keeping information to use later
- C. a part of a person's brain
- 6. What does physical mean in this book?

The physical parts are called hardware. They include the screen, keyboard, and hard drive.

- A. able to be touched or held
- B. able to be made with code
- C. made up or not real

F@CUS READERS

Answer Key:

- 1. Answers will vary
- 2. Answers will vary
- 3. C
- 4. C
- 5. B
- 6. A