

FOCUS ON
Fish Migration

1. Write a paragraph describing the main idea of Chapter 2.
2. Which type of fish migration do you find most interesting? Why?
3. What is one kind of fish that migrates between the Mekong River and Tonle Sap each year?

 - A. striped tiger perch
 - B. American eel
 - C. flounder
4. What is most likely to make an area good for spawning?

 - A. The water is very hot.
 - B. The water does not have any food.
 - C. The water has few predators.

5. What does destination mean in this book?

They do not stop traveling until they find it. Salmon can swim more than 2,000 miles (3,200 km) to reach their destination.

- A. a place where an animal is trying to go
- B. a place where an animal begins its trip
- C. a place where fish cannot survive

6. What does the word drift mean in this book?

First, the eel eggs float in the ocean. After hatching, baby eels drift on currents.

- A. mate and release eggs
- B. move slowly on the water
- C. stay in the same place

Answer Key:

1. Answers will vary
2. Answers will vary
3. A
4. C
5. A
6. B