

FOCUS ON

Reptile Migration

1. Write a paragraph describing the main ideas of Chapter 3.
2. What type of reptile migration do you think is most interesting? Why?
3. Which reptile has the longest migration?
 - A. leatherback sea turtle
 - B. Nile crocodile
 - C. garter snake
4. Why might green iguanas travel to an island to lay eggs?
 - A. so the babies are far from danger
 - B. so the babies will not survive
 - C. so the babies can't get back to the mainland

5. What does tropics mean in this book?

Some snakes in the tropics also migrate. These snakes do not hibernate. That's because the tropics don't get cold in the winter.

- A. places where animals are always safe
- B. places that are usually warm and wet
- C. places where snakes are unable to survive

6. What does relocate mean in this book?

Some Nile crocodiles in South Africa migrate a short distance. They relocate from rivers and lakes to nearby floodplains.

- A. to sink in deep waters
- B. to stay in the same place
- C. to move to a new place

Answer Key:

1. Answers will vary
2. Answers will vary
3. A
4. A
5. B
6. C