

FOCUS ON GREAT CAREERS IN HEALTH CARE

1. Write a paragraph explaining the main ideas of Chapter 2.
2. Do you think working with patients or doing research would be more interesting? Why?
3. Approximately what percent of health-care workers are in allied-health roles?
 - A. 15 percent
 - B. 20 percent
 - C. 60 percent
4. Why does it take more schooling to become a doctor than a nurse or an allied-health worker?
 - A. Nurses and allied-health workers deal with more complex parts of the body.
 - B. It takes more time for doctors to specialize and learn how to make diagnoses.
 - C. Doctors have fewer duties than nurses or allied-health workers.

Answer Key:

1. Answers will vary
2. Answers will vary
3. C
4. B